

AM Notices November 2016

Links for Action on the Peace Tax Bill mentioned in Minute 16.11.20

Link to info on the Peace tax bill

<http://www.conscienceonline.org>

Link to form to register as a CO 2016 and claim exemption

<http://www.conscienceonline.org>

EVENTS:

“What you didn't know about Marple men (and women) in WW1” - see poster attached Marple Library 7th – 26th November

Admission free. During Library opening hours:

Monday 10.00am – 7.00pm Thursday 9.00am – 5.00pm

Tuesday 9.00am – 7.00pm Friday 9.00am – 6.00pm

Wednesday 9.00am – 1.00pm Saturday 9.00am – 4.00pm

“Worn with Pride” Poetry Anthology Launch - See poster attached Tuesday 29th November, 7.00-8.15pm

All Hallows Catholic College, Brooklands Avenue, Macclesfield, SK11 8LB.

It would be good if each Meeting could be represented, but due to numbers this would be best limited to 2-3 from each Meeting and Celia Davies of Wilmslow Meeting would appreciate knowing beforehand who is intending to go.

“Songs and poems for peace” - See Poster attached

Saturday 3rd December 4.00 – 5.00pm Stockport Art Gallery.

There will be a speaker about Gertrude Powicke from Stockport who served with Friends War Victims Relief during WW1.

Rehearsal, led by Taylor Giacom, for those able to attend, at Stockport Meeting House on Saturday 26th November, 1.30 – 3.30pm, Please invite friends and let Taylor know if you are coming.

8 January 2017 Pantomime visit.

Stockport Meeting is hosting an age Mf W, shared party lunch and games, before going to the Pantomime (Peter Pan). Friends are asked to bring contributions of food.

2017 Great Hucklow dates for your diary

Stockport Meeting invites East Cheshire Friends to join us at a long weekend at Great Hucklow in the Peak District from 7th to the 10th of September 2017. You can arrive on the Thursday or Friday, and we all leave on the Sunday afternoon. These enjoyable weekends started in 2000, and have taken place every year since.

ADDITIONAL NOTICE :

Become a Governor of a Quaker School

Area Meeting has received an advert, from the Executive Support Officer of the Friends School Council, first placed in the Friend on 12 February 2016 asking for interested people to become a Governor of a Quaker School and notifying us of a Quaker Governors' Conference 3rd – 5th March 2017 at Warwick.

Further details can be found on www.aquakereducation.co.uk or e mailing info@aquakereducation.co.uk